

SCHOLAR SUPPORT PROGRAMME (SSP)

“Mastering the Basics: A Beginner’s Guide to Financial Literacy”

A Seminar Session - Report

The Scholar Support Programme of college had organized a training session for the first-year degree students on 07/03/2025 at 2:30 pm in Fr. Punnappadom Hall. Mr. Praveen Joseph, Assistant Professor & Head, Department of Commerce was the resource person handling the seminar session on the topic “Mastering the Basics: A Beginner’s Guide to Financial Literacy”. The session covered various aspects and dimensions of saving & investing money and measures for managing income and expenses among students. The seminar session had covered about different types of investment avenues and the risk & return associated with each investment opportunities. Twenty students under the classification of slow learners from different departments had attended the seminar session.

