

Report on the Activity

NCC Day 2024 Celebration - Donating Essential Items to Mother Chantal Seva Nivas, Pacha

Organized by: NCC Army Wing, St. Aloysius College, Edathua

Date: 24th November 2024

Venue: Mother Chantal Seva Nivas, Pacha

Occasion: NCC Day 2024

Objective

The primary aim of this activity was to foster empathy and social responsibility among cadets by reaching out to the less fortunate. The donation drive sought to provide essential items such as rice and toiletries to Mother Chantal Seva Nivas, a home for destitute individuals, thereby contributing to their welfare and spreading the spirit of compassion.

Activity Details

The donation drive was conducted as part of the NCC Day 2024 celebrations. Under the guidance of Lt. Dr. Jubin Antony, Associate NCC Officer, cadets of the Army Wing actively participated in collecting essential items like rice and toiletries. These items were carefully packaged and transported to Mother Chantal Seva Nivas, Pacha.

The event commenced with an introductory session led by the NCC officer, who emphasized the importance of service and empathy. The cadets handed over the donated items to the management of the home, who expressed their heartfelt gratitude. The interaction between the cadets and the residents of the home was a touching moment, filled with warmth and mutual respect.

Outcome

The residents of Mother Chantal Seva Nivas benefited directly from the donation, which helped meet their basic needs. Cadets gained a deeper understanding of the challenges faced by marginalized communities, enhancing their empathy and civic sense. The event strengthened the bond between the college and the local community, showcasing the NCC's commitment to social welfare. The activity concluded with a sense of fulfillment among the cadets, reinforcing the values of service and compassion as integral aspects of their training and character development.