

Report on Aloysia Aitheria 2025 Beauty Pageant

The much-anticipated Aloysia Aitheria 2025 beauty pageant took place on March 18, 2025, featuring three exciting competitions: Miss Aloysius, Monchathi, and Nasrani Manka. The event was held to celebrate the talent, grace, and beauty of the participants, and it attracted a great deal of enthusiasm from both the college community and attendees.

The event was meticulously coordinated by Dr. Neethu Mary Tomy, who ensured that everything ran smoothly.

Miss Aloysius

The Miss Aloysius segment, which was the highlight of the event, saw some fierce competition among the contestants. The panel of judges for this round included Ms. Ameya Mary Yovakim and Ms. Ashly Wilson. After an intense round of evaluations, Amritha S emerged as the winner of the Miss Aloysius title, captivating the judges with her poise, intelligence, and elegance.

Nasrani Manka

In the Nasrani Manka competition, which showcased the unique cultural talents of the participants, the judges were Mr. Sebastian Thomas and Ms. Cibyna Thomas. After an impressive display of performances, Princy A claimed the Nasrani Manka crown. Her grace and cultural representation were particularly highlighted during her presentation, impressing the judges with her depth of tradition and modern flair.

Monchathi

The final competition of the evening was Monchathi, judged by Ms. Deena C Scaria and Ms. Shahina S. The Monchathi competition focused on showcasing beauty along with inner strength and personality. After a series of rounds, Fathimathul Hind was announced as the winner, her charm and confidence shining throughout the contest.

Other Winners:

Best Hair: Aneeta Reji

Best Smile: Malavika G

Best Costume (Nasrani Manka): Aiswarya Sukumaran

Best Costume (Monchathi): Jyothika V

Event Conclusion

The event was a massive success, drawing attention to the immense talent present in the community. The winners of each competition, Amritha S, Princy A, and Fathimathul Hind, all received well-deserved recognition for their excellence. They will undoubtedly inspire future participants in the years to come.

This year's Aloysia Aitheria marked another step towards celebrating beauty in all its forms, promoting not only outward appearance but also inner grace, confidence, and cultural appreciation.