

Report on Republic Day Celebrations 2025

Organized by: NCC Army and Navy Wings, St. Aloysius College, Edathua

Date: 26th January 2025

Number of participants: 105

The Republic Day celebrations at St. Aloysius College, Edathua, were organized by the NCC Army and Navy Wings on 26th January 2025. The event commenced with the hoisting of the National Flag by Prof. Dr. Indulal G, followed by the National Anthem. Prof. Dr. Indulal G then received the salute from NCC cadets, who displayed remarkable discipline and coordination during the parade.

After the formal ceremonies, NCC cadets presented cultural activities, including patriotic songs, skits, and dance performances, highlighting India's rich heritage and the values enshrined in the Constitution. The performances inspired the audience and reinforced the spirit of nationalism.

The event successfully instilled a sense of pride and responsibility among students. The celebrations fostered unity and encouraged students to uphold the values of democracy and service to the country.
