

Finishing School & Soft Skills Training Program

On 12th March 2025 the department is organizing a finishing school program for third-year students, which will focus on enhancing their soft skills. Additionally, a career guidance seminar will be held for the first and second-year students, aimed at helping them plan their careers and make informed decisions about their future.