

World Photography Day celebrations

World Photography Day celebrations, organized by the Department of English in association with the Media Club, took place on August 19, 2024. The event featured photography workshops, exhibitions, and discussions, fostering appreciation for visual storytelling. Participants explored diverse photographic techniques and connected with fellow enthusiasts, celebrating the art of capturing moments. The day aimed to promote photographic skill and artistic expression within the community.